

As a network member you can

- Participate in bi-monthly internet-based learning events to learn about innovative SD planning tools and approaches
- Share and exchange your experiences in SD planning with other network members at Blogspot and Toolbox sections on the network website
- Communicate with colleagues across the region and other similar networks worldwide through moderated email dialogues to update news and knowledge on SD planning
- Contribute to the selection of targeted research topics and be informed of all research conducted by the network
- Participate in the annual conference

Advisory Group Members:

- UN-Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UN-ESCAP)
- UN Environment Programme- Regional Office for Asia Pacific (UNEP-ROAP)
- UN Division for Sustainable Development (UN-DSD)
- UNDP-Pacific Centre
- International Union for Conservation of Nature Oceania Regional Office Suva (IUCN)
- Earth Council
- International Development Research Centre (IDRC)
- Deutsche Gesellschaft für Technische Zusammenarbeit (GTZ)
- South Pacific Regional Environmental Programme (SPREP)

Network Manager: International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD)

Network Coordinator: Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES)

For further information and to become a network member, please contact:

Ms. Wanida Wanichpongpan
SDplanNet-AP coordinator
Institute for Global Environmental
Strategies, Bangkok office
Tel: +66(02)5246441
Fax: +66(02)5246233
Email: coordinator@sdplannet-ap.org
URL: www.sdplannet-ap.org

SDplanNet-Asia & Pacific

Sharing Tools in Planning for Sustainable Development

